

life is a fragile thing lyrics

music & lyrics: andy enroe

main 1

He sat on the table – in a kind and polite manner His insurance agent – had just left the house He tried to foresee – every accident But some events – he just could not avoid

He always admired – his good mate Dennis who seemed to run – every damn risk chorus

Because life is a fragile thing and he just enjoyed the evenness of its tender flow

But still there remains a last doubt about its content – about its potential

main 2

Maybe some days were boring – but he could be warm and secure – and that is what he needed Maybe that's second hand, but he hated surprises Friends got wounded by serious accidents

People became poor by financial events who seemed to run – every damn risk

Because life is a fragile thing
and he just enjoyed the evenness of its tender flow

Yeah ...

He always admired - his good mate Dennis
who seemed to run - every damn risk

about its content – about its potential

Ahhaaa ... ahaaaha ...

gt-solo

chorus

Because life is a fragile thing
and he just enjoyed the evenness of its tender flow
