

Without Remorse

parts & lyrics

intro

Looking for a true response for a true response

main 1

He just nodded as he saw the crater and knitted his brow above his three eyes
The exploration of this moon was really no success

Enska lifted his virtual unit – and turned to his mate Joe-Ka “Fivehundred lightyears, and then this!”
The disappointment could be seen on his scaled face

chorus 1

So finally we can utilize our discovery
This planet gives us all the meat we're longing for – we're longing for

And sometimes we need to change our perspective
Just to see what we were doing – just to generate a true response

main 2

They had just arrived at this blue planet when the sensor devices indicated a huge quantity of inhabitants

“They provide all those albumens that we need, It's a fantastic discovery” – two legs, two arms

chorus 2

So finally we can utilize our discovery
This planet gives us all the meat we're longing for – we're longing for

main 3

“Do they really taste as expected?”
Our larder is pretty full,
these creatures are so primitive, we can eat them without remorse

chorus 3

with guitar solo

So finally we can utilize our discovery
– yeah

And sometimes we need to change our perspective
– yeah

Just to see what we were doing,
just to generate a true response

chorus 4

with guitar solo

Just to see what we were doing,

outro
